Alumni Adopt Development Project

Through the recent letter of alumni president Raymond Childress, you have been informed about the choice of the development program of the College as the alumni project for this year. Also you should have received a copy of the Fulfillment brochure explaining the scope of the total development program and an accompanying letter from Dr. Mercer.

At the heart of this upsurge of growth at Bryan is an earnest desire on the part of the trustees and administration to expand the ministry of our training program so that more young people may benefit by a Christ-centered education that will stabilize them in a world that is so confused with human rationalism and godlessness.

Having completed the two new dormitories and a maintenance building and having raised the endowment fund to half a million dollars, we are now ready to enter the second phase of our fulfillment plans which include:

Support for scholarships, educational opportunity costs, faculty advancement, and special programs	$325,000
Expansion of library facilities	50,000
Addition of approximately 8,500 new library volumes per year for three years	150,000
Completion of Administration Building	150,000
Furnishing and equipping of Administration Building	100,000
Physical education, intramural, intercollegiate sports facility including swimming pool	400,000
Total of current second phase	$1,175,000

This phase is scheduled as a three-year program for the College, and by our Alumni Association support of the scholarship opportunities and increased library holdings, we can play a major part in seeing this program brought to its literal fulfillment.

At the Alumni Leadership Conference on February 12-13, detailed plans were outlined for making personal contacts with all alumni this year to explain more fully the opportunity to join in this major "forward thrust" for Bryan College. We trust you will be praying and planning as to your part in this phase of the Lord's work.

Any suggestions or inquiries you may have to strengthen the arm of the Alumni Office in its service to you and in our united service to the College will be welcomed.

Remember, we stand ready to provide you with:

1. Literature and pictures regarding life at Bryan for youth groups or other friends;
2. Answers to questions of prospective students about Bryan's educational standing;
3. Up-to-date addresses of fellow alumni;
4. Hospitality when you come to visit the campus;
5. Transcripts of your Bryan credits as needed for further educational plans;
6. Help in planning an alumni chapter meeting in your area; and
7. A college representative to visit your area as there may be special opportunity for presenting the work of Bryan.

PROFESSIONS

This issue of BRYANETTE has its news arranged according to professional or occupational activity of Bryan alumni. The information is also arranged by chronological listings of the alumni. The news includes also a review of the weddings and births reported to the Alumni Office in recent months.

Teachers

Lowell '42 and Lola (Goehring) x'43 Hoyt moved from Winona Lake, Ind., to Ossining, N.Y., two miles from Briarcliff Manor, where Lowell is teaching in the mathematics department at The King's College. They live in a college house and serve as house parents for nine college students. Bruce, the eldest of their seven children, is a freshman at King's.

Adele Ray Lewis '48 made a 10,000 mile trip this summer by car alone, visiting 23 states, included stops at the New York World's Fair and Bryan College. She is teaching 11th grade English for advanced students in Prineville, Oregon.

Paul Gillespie '50 is teaching in the Graphic Arts Science department of Miami-Dade Junior College. The school was opened in 1960 and has an enrollment of 13,000.

Dr. Robert Clouse '54, presently teaching at Indiana State College in Terre Haute, Ind., studied on a scholarship this past summer at Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, D.C. His wife, Bonnidell (Barrows) is taking work toward the Ph.D. at Indiana University. They have two sons, Gary and Kenneth.

George Harris '54 has accepted the position of principal at Trinity Schools of the South in Atlanta, Ga., which is conducting night Bible school sessions taught by Dr. Gannett from Southeastern.

Virginia McCranie '57 is teaching the first grade in the First Baptist Church of Westwood Lake Christian Day School in Miami, Fla.

John and Bertha (Derr) x'49 Hankin along with their five children, Mary, Jane, Andrew, Judith, and Elizabeth, are active in the Haddon Heights Baptist Church in Oaklyn, N. J. Bertha is substitute teaching in Camden County Elementary schools.

Charles Moore x'57 with his wife, Shirley, and four children--Dawn, Derek, Darleen, and Douglas, lives in Mt. Clemens, Michigan. He works at General Motors and teaches part-time at McComb Community College.

Vernon Palmer '57 is guidance counsellor in the Quincy School and is living in Coldwater, Mich.

Ardis (Johnson) '57 Sherman, in a three-page family Christmas letter (we'd be glad to share with you) includes news about her husband, Milton, who is a high school teacher at Centralia, Wash., and their two children, William Tecumseh, born in 1961 and Cordelia Beatrice, born in June, 1962. Ardis had hip surgery in June 1963 and again in March 1964 and is now slowly improving.

Bettie (Evans) x'58 Powell is the new acquisitions librarian at Fort Hays Kansas State College and teaches courses in library science. After attending Bryan she obtained a B.S. degree in Christian Education from Kansas City Bible College and a master of arts in library science from Denver University. Her husband, LaVon, is a retired jet pilot. They have three children: Bradley, Rex, and Kent. The family attends the Interdenominational Bible Church.

Virginia Nye '60 has been promoted to the position of head of the women's physical education department of the Grand Rapids Junior College. During the summer she attended an archery workshop and took professional golf lessons to teach these co-ed courses also.

Ken Roden '62 is teaching high school math and eighth grade science in Danville, Ohio.

MISSIONARY NEWS

NEW RECRUITS

Ann Frazer '59 is living at the Door of Hope Children's Refuge for about 100 Chinese girls and shares fellowship with other TEAM missionaries while attending language school for a year in Taipei, Taiwan. She rides 80 minutes each day on bicycle to get to school.

Dean '58 and Edith Franklin arrived at St. Vincent Island of the British West Indies on August 30. Their main responsibility is with 20 students enrolled in the Windward Islands Bible Institute. On Sunday, Dean, along with 12 laymen and 2 students visit branch churches and conduct street meetings in various points on the windward coast.

Edwin Svedberg '57 planned to leave for Colombia, S. A., in February to serve under Jungle Aviation and Radio Service, a support department of Wycliffe Bible Translators.

Janet Claycomb '64 of Oxford, Mich., is making preparations for work with orphan children in Korea under the United World Mission, with plans to leave as soon as support is underwritten. A commissioning service was planned for Janet at the Westminster Presbyterian Church in Chattanooga on March 24.

RETURNEES

John x'37 and Agnes (Cope) Land '36 de Rosset have returned to their mission station at N'dele in Central African Republic. Things seem relatively quiet there and they have been heartily welcomed by their old friends. However, they do sense a national unrest, as neighbors of the disturbed Congo.

Margaret Ann McKinnon x'41 has taken up residence in Iligan City, Philippines, in a new house along the northern coast of Mindanao the province of Lanao del Norte. She has a helper with her from Talakag who is assisting her with study of Visayan and with a children's class. She also has hopes for starting a Sunday evening Bible class in her home.

Milton x'44 and Marty Murphy with their five children returned to Petah Tikvah, Israel, in August. Milton is associate pastor of their Petah Tikvah congregation and was ordained in November. He is teaching a course in New Testament at a training course in Haifa. They request prayer for the continued opposition to missions.

"Aunt" Wanda Lautzenheiser '49 is dorm supervisor to ten missionary daughters, grades 1-3 at the Christian Academy in Tokyo since returning to Japan on August 21.

Ronald '52 and Gladys (Jennewein) '50 Meznar request prayer about a new location for the Seminary and Press building that they must vacate in the fall of 1965. Good locations are rare and costly in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Norma Sweeney '53 returned to Brazil in February for her work with Child Evangelism. She is hoping to have funds to purchase a Volkswagen for use in her work.

Austin and Ellora (Caudill) '53 Lockhart returned to West Irian last fall and were assigned to a new tribe, the Ngalm tribe.

Darwin '54 and June (Hively) '54 Neddo sailed with their four children to France on August 8 and arrived August 17. They are again at the French Bible Centre in La Madeleine, France.

Alice White '55 reports that the teachers took 50 school girls from Chavuma to Balovale on October 24 to take part in the celebration of independence of Northern Rhodesia which is now called Zambia. The president of the new country, Dr. Kenneth Kaunda, is a Christian, who asked for prayer for his country.

Lois Ringler '57 is back in Central African Republic very near the Congo border. She kept Mrs. Paul Carlson and children when they left Congo until after Christmas when they returned to the States.

Charles and Muriel (Leonard) x'59 Davis have been brought back safely to the U.S. from Congo after being held as hostages in Stanleyville. Charles was with Dr. Paul Carlson at the time he was killed, and both he and his family narrowly escaped death at the hand of the rebels.

PROGRESS AND PROBLEMS

Mark Levengood '42 is the Natal Regional Director of Emmaus Bible Correspondence courses in the Zulu language, with over 10,000 courses sent out throughout South Africa. Pietermaritzburg is an educational center possessing some of the finest schools in the Republic, including University of Natal, Teacher's Training College, Tech. College and eleven high schools. Opportunities to speak to student groups are present. There are presently eight Bible courses in Zulu. Mark had the privilege to "officially open" a new church where a conference of believers from eighteen churches met for the Quarterly African Conference along with missionaries from Elim Mission Station where they had previously spent five years.

Ed and Doris (Crozier) x'47 Todd with three other teachers have 72 children in nursery, kindergarten and the first three grades in school in Haiku, Maui, Hawaii, under the Denbigh Missionary Fellowship of Hawaii. Ed's ankle was injured recently by metal broken by a stone on a rotary lawn mower, with blood vessels severed and a bone broken.

Wanda Burcham '49 in Andhra, India, as missionary nurse assisted in a Loper Clinic in Cherial in Sept. That month also saw the dedication of new buildings for the Mission Middle School. Food costs have increased in India so that feeding the school children has been a matter of rigid economy. She anticipates coming on furlough this spring.

Nell Pearson '49 conducted four daily vacation Bible schools in Austria this summer and had an average attendance of 50-55. In their 12th annual summer Bible Camp 38 attended for 10 days. The Church on Wheels continues its ministry in neighboring towns and is now parked for the winter on the outskirts of Salzburg and will be used for Sunday evening meetings.

Clifford '51 and Ruth Hanham with their family of five continue in their ministry to Cubans in Miami through Templo Biblico Bautista, the Spanish-speaking church. Recent conversions include a medical doctor from Lima, Peru, a young Dominican sailor, and the testimony continues to others. Clifford is principal of the Miami Christian School where Drusilla, Christi, and Susan are enrolled. Sherri is now three, and Titus is just past one year.

ELLSWORTH AND LOIS BALZER

PRISCILLA

EUNICE

Ellsworth x'51 and Lois Balzer and family had to leave their station in Sudan in March and went to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, but expected to go to Nigeria to work. Pray for them and other missionaries in Africa who are subjected to the difficult periods of adjustment through being forced to leave their stations and homes.

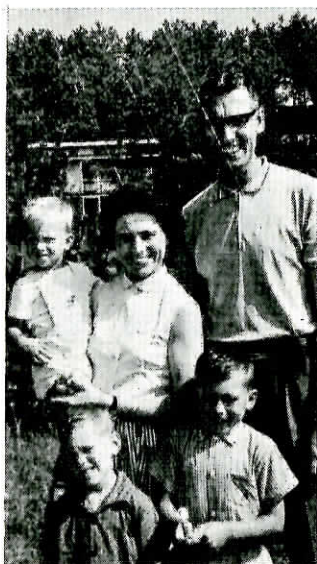

Dale '53 and Martha (Sheffield) '54 Payne were assistants at Youth Camp held at Lake Caruara, Brazil, on January 7-13. Dale was men's counselor, teacher, and song leader. Martha with two other wives held vacation Bible school for about 20 missionary children that week. During two weeks of special meetings in Fonte Boa recently with Ed and Dot Blakslee, eight persons made profession of faith. Dale pulled 459 teeth in the nine days they held evening services.

Armond (Bud) '54 and Lolly (Gearhart) '54 Fritz together with Steven and Mark have been back in Southern Rhodesia for a year. Bud is teaching English, arithmetic, Bible, science, and geography in 9th and 10th grades, and Lolly is teaching biology in the high school at Mavuradonha Mission Station. Steven is attending school in Salisbury.

Pearl Rathbun '55 returned to Korea via the SS California Bear which was her home for one month until arrival on June 26. She is again working at radio station HLKX. In October she helped to begin a Radio Ensemble which hopes to record hymns from the new hymnal being printed by TEAM Word of Life Press in Seoul.

Malcolm '56 and Rhoda Bradshaw are stationed in Djakarta, Indonesia, which has the world's largest Muslim population and also the world's third largest Communist party. Mac is training a small band of "Timothys" through weekly sessions. Their two sons, Gregory and Todd, are in school in Malaya, and Jessie remains at home to help care for Caroline Faith, born in June.

LANGUAGE PROGRESS

John '54 and Joyce (Cooper) '54 Rathbun are still busy with language study in Korea. By June 1965 John expects to finish Yonsei University Language School and Joyce plans to finish her second-year requirements. Added to sons John Mark, Joel, and James is a "daughter," Eleanor Danielson, a missionary candidate attending language school.

Sandra Cue '55 will be in Campinas, Sao Paulo, Brazil, until April for a refresher course in the Portuguese language.

Fred and Delores (Yockey) '56 Plastow have completed six months language study and plan for twelve more months in studying Arabic in order to minister in the land of Morocco under Gospel Missionary Union. They are living in Khemisset with their three daughters. Hunger for the truth is evidenced by nearly 30,000 in Morocco who have enrolled in the Bible Correspondence course.

Wilbur '58 and Ida Lou Pickering have been called away from their language work among the Apurina tribe in order that Wilbur may direct the Portuguese course for missionaries in Rio de Janeiro. They will remain in Rio de Janeiro for their biennial branch conference April 25-May 9 with other Wycliffe missionaries.

Nancy Freiberger x'59, in a company of twelve missionaries and language helpers, moved to Kontun for 2½ months of intensive study of language problems. They hope to start making primers soon in the Nung language on which she has been working. Communist activity (in Vietnam) is in evidence which makes the urgency of their work bear upon them.

FURLOUGH

Daniel '41 and Eleanor Hirschy, in their fourth term in Africa, are being forced to learn the language of the main local tribe, Sara Madjingaya, since use of Sango in religious services has been forbidden in Chad. The Hirschys expect to come on furlough in May in time for the marriage in June of their oldest daughter.

Tom (Manford) Cain '43 arrived in Seattle, Wash., on Oct. 2 from Kashmir, North India. He and his family are living with his wife's father. The two older children, Cathy and Thomas are attending Christian High School in King's Garden. Philip, who is 10, is in public school.

Iola Baker sp'50 came on emergency medical furlough from Congo last fall and is working at Cedine Bible Mission in Spring City, Tenn.

Hugh '51 and Kay Coombs came home in July from Congo by way of the Holy Land and Europe and are living in Coming, New York.

John '54 and Janice (Brown) '53 Miesel are detained from returning to Congo because of the recent disturbances. They had planned to leave in September, but added to the Congo difficulty, was a family interruption when Brenda fell and broke her arm in two places. They are waiting with equipment including truck and printing press to know the Lord's leading concerning their place of service. FLASH: March letter tells of plans to locate in eastern France in order to launch a youth magazine in conjunction with the Grace Brethren.

Jack Lacey '52 wrote in November from Rwanda that they planned for furlough in December. He hopes to get further training in radio and aviation while in the U. S.

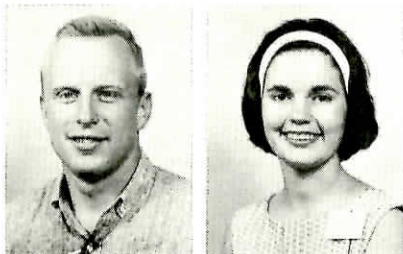

Nadine Schick '55 and Helen Gow '48 returned to the States on December 27 after attempts to continue work in Congo seemed completely futile.

Rachael O'Mera '58 flew from Alaska to her home in Wisconsin in January and then motored to Florida to live with a fellow missionary at the D and D Missionary Homes in St. Petersburg until March.

Bill and Verena (Bender) '55 Hekman with their daughters, Cynthia and Sonja, visited at Bryan on their deputation trip in November. They will be in Arizona for remaining furlough time until returning to West Irian, Indonesia, to work among the Asmat tribe under TEAM.

In US Service

Ron '64 and Diane (Peck) x'64 Morren arrived in Guatemala on November 1 as Peace Corps Volunteers to participate in a rural community action and agricultural extension program. They trained for nine weeks at Kansas State University in Manhattan, Kansas, last summer and had two weeks of field training in Kansas. Their final training was four weeks in Puerto Rico with experience in rock climbing, drown-proofing, and jungle treks in pouring rain.

Lt. Col. Vinton A. Fish x'38 is a career officer in the U. S. Air Force with headquarters in San Antonio, Texas. He and his wife, Gladys, have three children, Richard, William, and Susan.

William Joseph Cox '52 began active duty as a chaplain in the Navy in October, 1962. He and his wife, Shirley (Horn) '51 went to San Diego and then in October 1963 were moved to Honolulu, Hawaii. They would welcome any Bryan visitors at their home at 943 Stowell Circle, Honolulu.

Mike Matheny x'52 is stationed in northern France about 60 miles from Paris as a member of the U.S. Air Force. He has been assigned to air traffic control and is also continuing his college work by night school courses.

Travelers

Lewis '56 and Charlotte (Wilde) x'57 Schoettl took a trip from their home in Kwajalein Island where they have been teaching to visit missionaries and other friends in Japan, Taiwan, Okinawa, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Singapore, Malaya, and Manila, where they visited with the Boyces and Walkwitzes.

Robert and Joy (Leslie) '56 Bostrom made by plane a month-long trip to Panama and Caracas, Venezuela. They visited Bob's parents in Barinitas and attended the TEAM missionary conference at San Cristobal. They returned to their home about the middle of January.

Wayne Bomgaars '62 traveled in Europe last summer on a self-planned tour including visits with Bryan alumni and other friends.

BOOK REVIEW--"Captivity and Coronation" by
Peggy (McCartney) Hay '59

Alice Campbell was completely captivated by Jesus Christ. In all her human personality and spoken and unspoken spiritual depths she is glimpsed in Ken Campbell's book, A Live Coal from the Altar. Its subtitle is as appropriate as the title: "the purposes of God through the mortal mission of Alice Joyce McLeod Campbell." This unique woman aptly served as a "live coal" to many an "unclean" lip. This, doubtless, was one aspect of her ministry during her marriage. In relating the events occurring before, during, and after their marriage, Ken has given poignant proof of God's purposes through Alice's life and death. A crown of life was awarded. Her grief-stricken loved ones confidently observed her funeral as her "Coronation Day."

In answer to Ken's "why?" regarding Alice's death, the Lord laid the burden of a Christian liberal arts college for Canada on Ken's heart. Negotiation for property suitable as a site for Coronation College is underway. The school is not envisioned as a "memorial" to Alice, rather as "the continuation of God's purposes through her mortal mission."

Today the labor of Ken and Norma Campbell is the evangelization of Canada and their aspiration for the college is a hope for "consecrated, prepared, eager Christian youth" to go "to the ends of the earth in our generation with the message of His Love and Grace."
